

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The National Association for the Self-Employed, located in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, is celebrating eight years of service to the self-employed; and,

WHEREAS, No group of individuals better exemplifies the spirit that built this great nation than the self-employed Americans whose courages, determination and hard work enabled them to start their own businesses, taking control of their destiny; and,

WHEREAS, The spirit and vitality of small business owners are woven deeply into the fabric of the American economy; and,

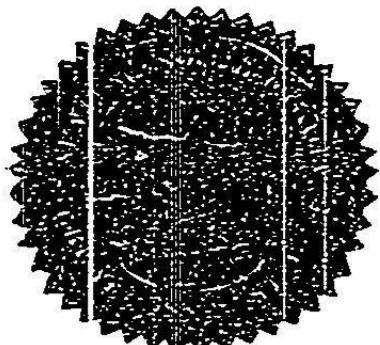

WHEREAS, The National Association for the Self-Employed has embraced the goals to promote the good health and financial security of its members, stimulate and encourage the ongoing success of independent, grassroots businesses, and provide significant and relevant discounts on business and personal services for its members; and,

WHEREAS, The association provides a united voice and more than 130 benefits including group medical insurance to its members, thereby providing the support needed for the small business owner to grow:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 26, 1990, as in South Dakota in recognition of the association's eight years of service to our citizens.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety
